LunchBox's award-winning events and seminar program offers all Western Australian business and professional women the opportunity to connect and collaborate while learning from the career experiences and expertise of other accomplished WA businesswomen and community leaders presenting and contributing to the program.

As leaders in women's networking and career development, LunchBox Lunch List is proud to introduce LIST-membership, a dynamic program of new business events and opportunities helping aspirational professional and businesswomen get ahead and advance their careers through widening their business circles, building closer and more influential networks with others in business and the professions, also obtaining useful career and business information.

So if this is you - keen to build your own brand, grow your business and form useful connections with other interesting, motivated WA business women or simply a woman wanting to meet and socialise with others in business like you - maybe time to check out LISTmembership.
